Continued construction of the New Headquarters Building (NHB). Walls are now in place, corridors and rooms defined, raised flooring is in place, landscaping is under way, wiring for telephones, ADP equipment, and telecommunications is under way, and the glass curtain wall was installed. About 20% of the total space in the NHB has been turned over to the Agency for beneficial occupancy. Also completed were the construction of the new Headquarters Visitor Control Centers and repaving of the Headquarters compound, which represent the largest contract ever processed through the

- Completed the annual printing of the Intelligence Community's Congressional Budget Justification Books during the second quarter of FY-1987. As a result of improved trade techniques, greater use of automation, and better production coordination, this year's effort was accomplished with more quality, less overtime, and reduced negative impact on OL's Agency customers.
- Responded to very short deadlines imposed in support of the Office of Personnel and the Human Resources Compensation Task Force for the printing of Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) books, information on the Thrift Plan, the Human Resources Compensation Task Force reports, and individual Agency Employee Benefit Statements.
